Letter of Opposition to AB345

Catherine Raynor stated she had provided a draft letter to the membership the day before. She suggested going over each paragraph and discussing changes.

A motion was made by Tami McKay, seconded by LuAnn Holmes, to approve the Opposition Letter with the changes discussed. The motion passed unanimously.

It was mentioned that AB259 contained a lot of the same language in it as AB345. Should the Letter of Opposition be referencing both bills? It was decided that the Opposition Letter needed to address both.

A motion was made by Tami McKay, seconded by LuAnn Holmes, to approve the Opposition Letter with the addition of AB259 to the subject line. The motion passed unanimously.

The final approved letter of opposition is attached herein.

General Business

Catherine Raynor announced the winners of the Clerks Academy Scholarship: April Parra, City of Henderson and Julie Torres, City of Sparks. Congratulation to both!

Adjournment

President Catherine Raynor adjourned the meeting at 11:34 a.m.
